

In Notre Dame, Indiana students experience all four seasons of the year in a dynamic environment. There are many activities available, including sporting events, museums, scenic nature trails, or even theatre. There are nearby shopping areas and restaurants, including the South Bend Chocolate Factory.

Students in the English Language School have the opportunity to live on campus in the Saint Mary's residence halls. Interacting with U.S. students allows participants in the language program to be fully immersed in the culture. The beautiful 98-acre campus is situated across the street from the University of Notre Dame and is only 1.5 hours away from Chicago. Residence halls offer on-site advisors for assistance. The campus is pedestrian-friendly and serviced by public transportation.
