We understand intercultural engagement to consist of two essential parts which combine to result in growth: one is interacting across the boundaries that define identities, circumscribe participation, and shape encounters, and the other is reflection on and interpretation of the complexities of those interactions. Such boundaries include, but are not limited to, race, ethnicity, area of origin, gender, religion, socioeconomic status, educational level, sexual orientation, age, varying ability, and language.*

Completed applications should be submitted to Professor Mana Derakhshani at the Center for Women's Intercultural Leadership, Spes Unica Suite 117 by April 9, 2018
