In Notre Dame, Indiana students get to experience all four seasons of the year in a comfortable environment. There are many activities available including sporting events, museums, scenic nature trails, or even the theatre. Nearby there are a variety of different shopping areas and restaurants including the South Bend Chocolate Factory.

Students in the English Language School will have the opportunity to live on campus in the Saint Mary’s residence halls. Interacting with U.S. students allows participants in the language program to be fully immersed in the culture and to practice linguistic skills regularly. The beautiful 98-acre campus is only 1.5 hours away from Chicago and is situated across the street from the University of Notre Dame. Residence halls have on-site advisors for assistance. The campus is walkable and serviced by public transportation.

Program Highlights

- Small, intensive classes with expert faculty
- Full immersion experience of U.S. college life
- Year-round activities (trip to Chicago, water rafting, snow tubing, and more)
- Conditional admission to degree programs available
- Preparation for the TOEFL and IELTS exams
- Immigration advising for international students

Saint Mary’s College is a small, private women’s school with a population of nearly 1,600 students located in Notre Dame, Indiana. The college is ranked by U.S. News and World Report as one of the top 100 Liberal Arts Colleges, and offers 5 degree programs and 30 major areas of study.

The Center for Women’s Intercultural Leadership (CWIL) at Saint Mary’s College provides an English Language School for non-native speakers ranging from beginner to advanced levels. The program focuses on preparing students for U.S. higher education. Each day there is a five-hour course load with classes in English reading, writing, listening, and speaking. Modern language laboratories are available for additional practice. Extracurricular cultural immersion activities, like field trips to Chicago, are available.
